

Apprenticeship Program – Master Fabricator

About Belt Power:

We are an nationally recognized conveyor belt fabricator, and distributor offering customized conveyor belting, modular plastic belting, urethane timing belts, and motorized pulleys. We have been in the conveyor belt industry for over 45 years. With 20+ facilities in the United States, and Sales and Installers all over the country, this is a place to grow a career!

Manufacturing Journeyman Card

- Registered with the Department of Labor (DOL)
- 2 Year Program

This position is responsible to perform various operations in the process of fabricating and conveyor belting by performing activities such as: safe operation of various fabricating tools and handheld equipment, housekeeping and special projects within your defined fabrication area. Blueprint reading, measuring accuracy and hand tools. Responsibilities include knowledge and involvement in lean, and team activities.

Manufacturing Level 2 Journeyman Card

- Registered with the Department of Labor (DOL)
- Additional 2 Year Program (4 years total)

This position performs operations in the process of fabricating and conveyor belting by performing routine activities such as: Quality control, fabrication in your station in the shop, and Grinding, Cleaning, and Urethane, utilizes continuous improvement training, and proficiency in rubber fabrication, endlessing fabrications, hole punching, and cleating.

Master Fabricator Journeyman Card

- Registered with the Department of Labor (DOL)
- Additional 2 Year Program (4 years total)

A Master Fabricator is proficient in executing highly complex conveyor belting fabrication. Proficiency in blueprint comprehension, work order comprehension, slitting, lacing, and Thermoweld of PVC V-Guide. Utilizes continuous improvement training to identify opportunities. Training Fabricators of junior skill level and R&D projects and prototypes.

.....

To apply: Complete Application at www.beltpower.com or,

Email your resume to: Staffing@beltpower.com